POISON PEN NOTES

Flood of Anonymous Letters Leads to Arrest of Miss Samuels of Goshen.

MANY HERE ATTACKED

GOSHEN, N. Y., Dec. 16-Theres: Samuels, 20 years old, unmarried and a ember of a well to do and respected Jewish family of this village, was arrested this afternoon by Post Office Inspectors Fitch and Duryes and charged with writing the slanderous anonymous letters that have so painfully affected the lives of many young women and their families and friends in and around New York city for the past few months.

outcome of many weeks of diligent in-York city, William J. Kinsley, by the resources of the Post Office Department's secret service and by various persons who volunteered their services to put an and to an unbearable state of affairs. Inspector Fitch finally made up his mind hat all or the greater part of the twentyeight "poisoned pen" letters that were written in recent months to young brides or to girls about to be married were the work of Miss Samuels.

la certain particulars there were dis-net similarities in the handwriting of l of the letters. The language employed in all was practically the same
